How Are We Doing As Instructor and Learner? : Assessment Workshop
July 10-12, 2017
Buffalo Thunder Resort
20 Buffalo Thunder Trail, Santa Fe, New Mexico 87506

Deadline to register is June 19, 2017

Workshop Overview

Assessment and evaluation is a topic of interest and concern for our Native Language programs and teachers. Tracking progress of our language learners is important because it informs instructors and mentors whether the method and efforts are producing results. Using assessment tools for foreign or English language learning is useful to a certain point, but it does not fit the deeper goals of heritage language learning. We will ask key questions, explore what and why we want our language to be vibrant, and discover ways to measure tangible and intangible progress of language acquisition. We will discuss how to implement culturally-relevant assessments in tandem with school standards.

Recommended for Preschool through higher education teachers and staff, parents, caregivers, program directors, administrators, language advocates and tribal leaders.
